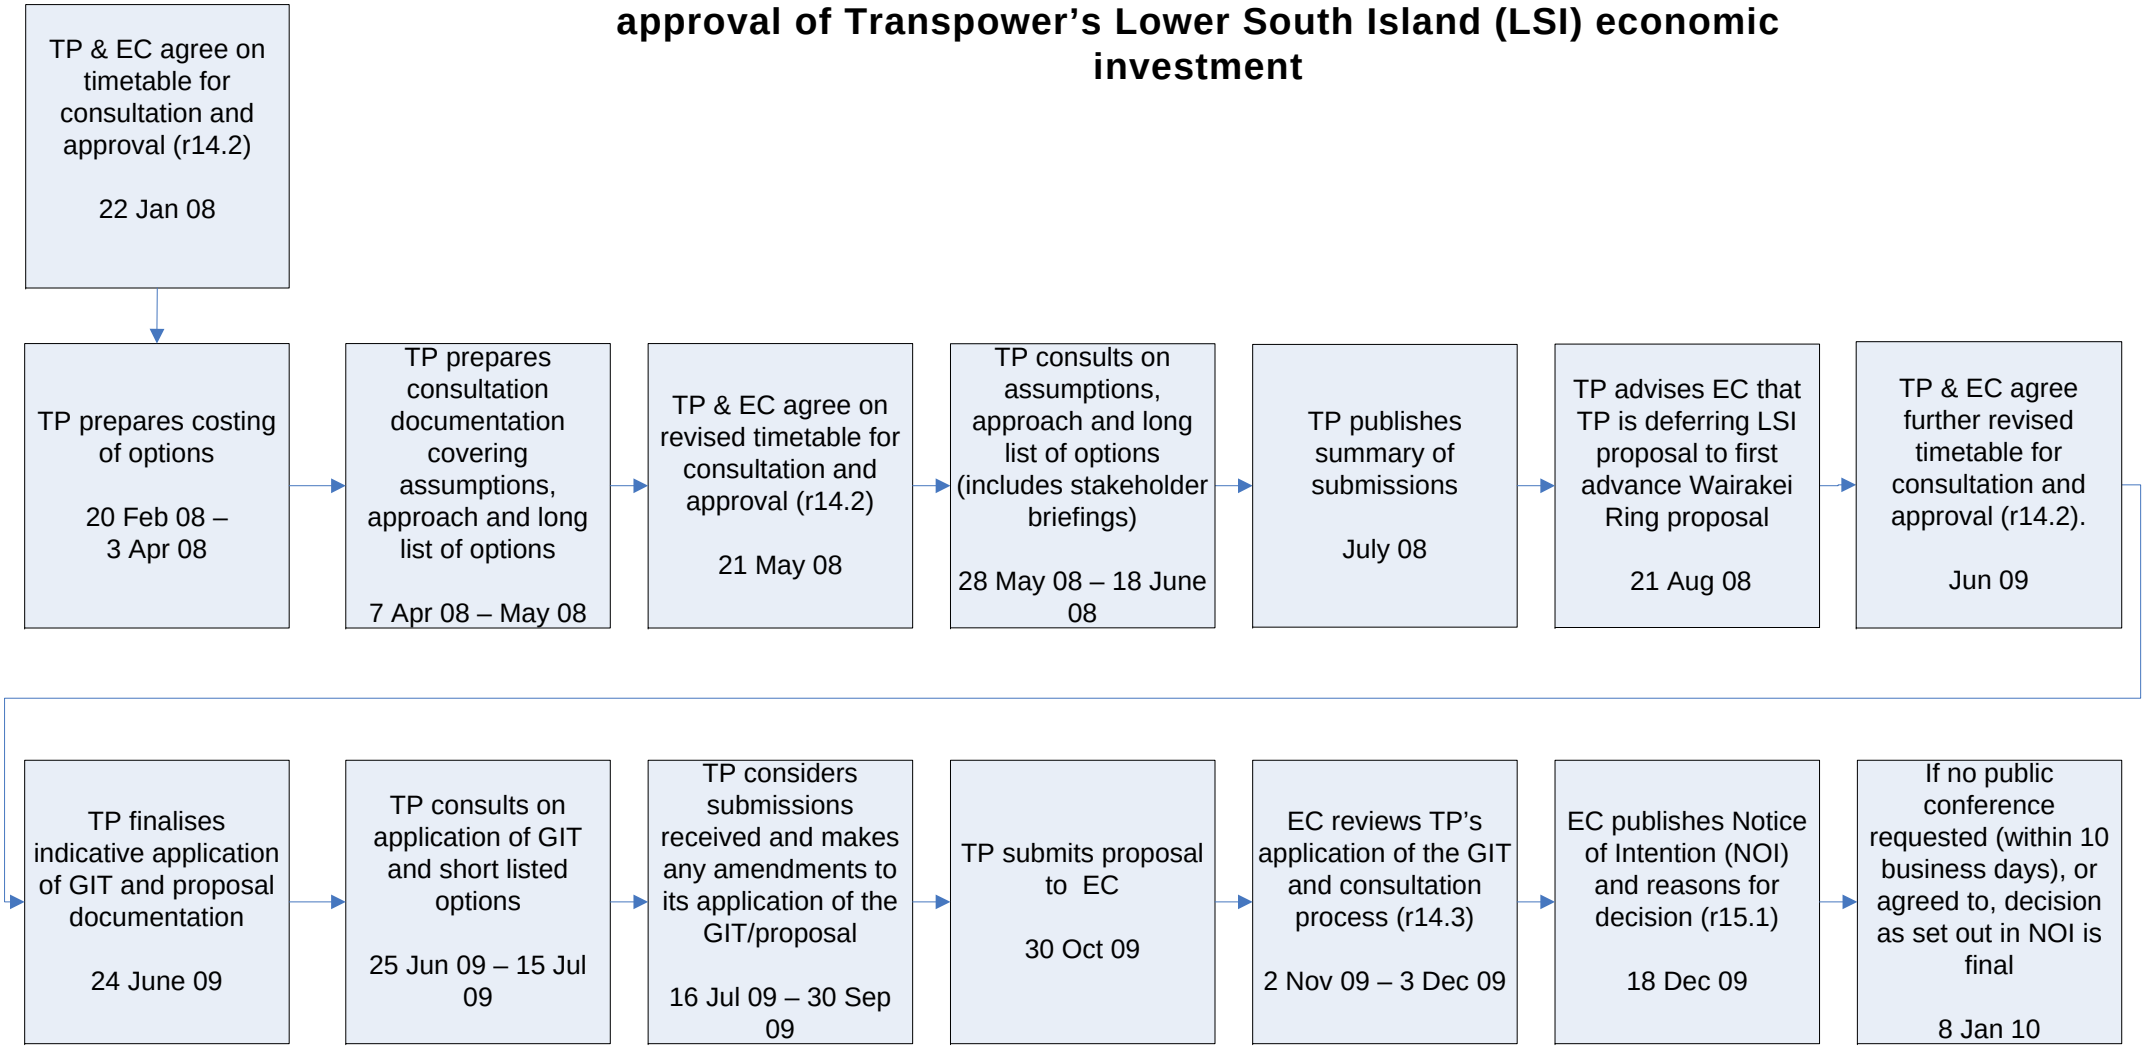
Updated process and timetable for consultation and (if appropriate) approval of Transpower's Lower South Island (LSI) economic investment



Assumptions:

- Proposal is an economic investment.
- Proposal, and any subsequently provided information, is comprehensive and thorough.
- After considering any information received in submissions, no substantial new information comes to light.
- No cross-submissions process.
- No public conference is required.

Updated 22 June 2009