

Not in scope

Commentary

Not in scope

The government’s economic development, science, and innovation committee considered Section 9(2)(b)(ii) calling for market reform . The committee acknowledged concerns but made no comment on structural reform. Instead, the committee referred to advice from the Authority’s wholesale market review indicating there was no hard evidence of persistent and structural abuse of market power with MBIE advising structural reform is not a priority.

Not in scope

Not in scope

Released under the Official Information Act 1982