Kia ora Tamara,

Yes good to catch up and thanks for the email. It would be great for us to have a joint session on this.

@Paul Sullivan is pulling some thoughts together from the Market Policy side with support from Doug and Murray Nash.

@Mia Kingsley-Smith (Paul's team administrator)– Can you please work with @Whitney Kaiwai to find us a time for a session along the lines described below? Perhaps on Monday?

Ngā mihi

Andrew

Hi Andrew

Good to catch up recently.

We talked about a session for members of the EA and of my team, to consider [9(2)(b)(ii)] points raised on ITPs and access to contracts.

Perhaps your EA could liaise with @Whitney Kaiwai to find some times that suit? Shall we aim for 90 mins in the first instance?

We could host here at MBIE, if face to face works best.

Ngā mihi,
Tamara

Hi Tamara and Sarah,

I am keen to keep the ball rolling on this and hear your perspectives and challenges on the four assertions we put forward so a couple of questions:

- Is there anything else you need from us to help aid your understanding of our perspective now that you have had time to digest?
- Can you provide a position on our assertions, outlining rationale for where you may have a different perspective?

Looking forward to continuing the conversation.

Thanks

Hi Tamara and Sarah,

Thanks for your time on Monday. We really enjoyed presenting our position, especially the challenge from your teams on some of our thinking which will require further collaboration.

I have attached the slides for your reference.

I think a great way forward would be for your teams to flush out further questions to help them understand and challenge our position, and to put forward alternate view points for our team to consider. If we can do this in relation to the 4 assertions we made up front I think it will be useful to shape the right discussion.

Let's keep the conversation moving. I am available any time to learn and discuss.

Many thanks
