Customer and Account Identification

These elements identify the customer and the supply address, and must appear on every bill.

Ref	REQUIREMENT	WHAT THIS MEANS IN PRACTICE
1	Customer account number ALWAYS	Uniquely identifies this customer's account with the retailer. Used as a payment reference.
2	Customer's ICP identifier, clearly labelled 'ICP' followed by the identifier ALWAYS	Must appear verbatim as 'ICP' followed by the 15-character identifier. Stays with the property on retailer switch.
-	If bill total exceeds $1,000 and the buyer is GST-registered: buyer's name plus one or more of — address, phone number, trading name, NZ business number, or URL address IF APPLICABLE	IRD requirement for tax invoices over $1,000 where the buyer is GST-registered.

Retailer Identification and Contact

The bill must enable the customer to identify and contact their retailer. IRD tax invoice requirements are incorporated below.

Ref	REQUIREMENT	WHAT THIS MEANS IN PRACTICE
3	Retailer's trading name and/or brand name ALWAYS	Must be present even if a logo is used. Must match the registered trading name.
4	Contact information for the retailer (link or details) ALWAYS	A phone number and website sufficient for a customer to make contact without external searching. Mailing address is optional.
5	Retailer's GST registration number ALWAYS	Required by the GST Act 1985 for all tax invoices.
6	Date of invoice (tax invoice date) ALWAYS	The date the invoice was issued. Required by the GST Act 1985.

Not in clause 5: GST registration number and tax invoice date are required by the GST Act 1985 for invoices over $50 (further requirements apply over $1,000). Retailers must satisfy both the Code and the GST Act independently.

Payment Obligations and Amounts Owed

These elements communicate the key financial obligations, including the total owed, payment due date, any outstanding balances, and any credits or adjustments applied during the period.

Ref	REQUIREMENT	WHAT THIS MEANS IN PRACTICE
7	Due date(s) for payment ALWAYS	The date by which payment must be made, stated in full date format — for example '30 July 2026'. Must be displayed at Level 1 prominence, large and bold, at the top of the bill and immediately adjacent to the total amount owed.
8	Total amount owed, in dollar figures (inclusive of GST) ALWAYS	The total amount the customer owes, including current charges, any overdue amounts, credits, reversals, discounts and bundled services. Must be GST-inclusive and must be the most visually dominant element on the bill. Includes all amounts — not just the current period charge.
9	Any overdue amounts owed, in dollar figures, and the invoicing period to which they relate IF APPLICABLE	Where the customer has an outstanding balance from a previous billing period, the overdue amount must be shown separately in dollar figures along with the period it relates to — for example 'Overdue balance: $16.50 (16 May to 14 June 2026)'. Must be clearly distinguishable from the current period charges.
10	Any credits, reversals, and discounts applied by the retailer, in dollar figures — including bundle discount ALWAYS	Where a retailer is seeking to recover a previously undercharged amount (back-bill), the amount must be clearly stated in dollar figures. Must be displayed separately from current period charges. The retailer must also advise the customer they may pay by instalments.
-	Undercharged amount ($) and due date for payment IF APPLICABLE	Where a retailer is seeking to recover a previously undercharged amount (back-bill), the amount must be clearly stated in dollar figures with a separate due date for payment. Must be displayed in a distinct highlighted section, separate from current period charges. The retailer must also advise the customer they may pay by instalments.

Charges Breakdown

Customers must be able to identify their current plan, its unique code, and any contractual obligations or exit costs.

Ref	REQUIREMENT	WHAT THIS MEANS IN PRACTICE
18	Product identification code ALWAYS	A unique machine-readable code assigned to the customer's electricity plan. Must be shown prominently on the bill. Segmented with hyphens for readability — for example 'CTCT-VCTR-G-FIXED24-LOW-BUNDLE2-2024'.
19	Pricing plan name ALWAYS	The name of the customer's current plan as listed in the retailer's plan catalogue — for example 'Bundle (Open Term)'. Must appear alongside the product identification code.
-	Contract end date IF APPLICABLE	Where the customer is on a fixed-term plan, the expiry date must be shown.
-	Amount of any contract exit fee IF APPLICABLE	The dollar amount of any early termination fee that would apply if the customer left their current plan.

Payment Options

The bill must either list the available payment methods or direct customers to where that information can be found.

Ref	REQUIREMENT	WHAT THIS MEANS IN PRACTICE
20	Payment options available to the customer, or advice on where the customer may find information about available payment options ALWAYS	Either list the available payment methods on the bill, or provide a link or reference directing the customer to where payment options are published.
